

Camp Pathfinder Camper Code of Conduct 2021
Take care of yourself. Take care of each other. Take care of this place.

Camp Pathfinder's guiding objective is to create a healthy, happy, safe environment for everyone in the camper and staff family. The Pathfinder experience teaches character, fellowship, caring, respect and responsibility.

All our campers are expected to abide by the following simple code of conduct. Campers who can not meet these expectations may be removed from Pathfinder for everyone's well-being, at the discretion of the Camp Director.

Pathfinder campers -
We respect ourselves and each other at Pathfinder.
We treat everyone as we would like to be treated.

We respect and care for the island and camp.
We respect and care for the fragile natural world of Algonquin and the northern canoe country.

We cooperate with Pathfinder staff.
We listen to and abide by the directions of our staff members who care for us and keep everyone safe. We respect and cooperate with the staff leadership of the Pathfinder experience.

We act with honesty and integrity.

We do not use aggressive, violent or profane language or actions in our dealings with others.

We do not bully, tease, harass or ridicule others in language or action.

We abide by the no-technology rules of Pathfinder. We know phones are prohibited.

We respect others' belongings. We do not steal or vandalize.

We do not use alcohol, tobacco, vape , cannabis, or misuse prescription or non-prescription drugs.

We care for ourselves and those around us.
